

NVIDIA to Reveal Consumer, Creative, Auto, Robotics Innovations at CES

Author: Brian Caulfield

NVIDIA executives will share some of the company's latest innovations Tuesday, Jan. 3, at 8 a.m. Pacific time ahead of this year's CES trade show in Las Vegas.

Jeff Fisher, senior vice president for gaming products, will be joined by Deepu Talla, vice president of embedded and edge computing, Stephanie Johnson, vice president of consumer marketing, and Ali Kani, vice president of automotive, for a special address that you won't want to miss.

During the event, which will be streamed on nvidia.com, the NVIDIA YouTube and Twitch channels, as well as on the GeForce YouTube channel, the executives will reveal exciting gaming, creative, automotive and robotics announcements.

The broadcast is a unique opportunity to get a sneak peek at the future of technology and see what NVIDIA has in store for the coming year.

Don't miss out on this special address from some of the top executives in the industry.

Tune in on Jan. 3 to get a first look at what's in store for the future of technology.
